

A TRIBUTE TO SHRI SATYATMA TIRTHA SWAMIJI

Like the twinkling stars of outer space
And the sun and moon that brighten the earth
Our Mentor holds the beacon light
Of Madhwa`s preaching with great delight.

The rightful heir of Satya Pramodaru
The scholarly scion of a scholarly clan,
He treads the path of truth and wisdom
And beckons the people to follow the same.

The revered doyen of Dvaita domain
A leading light of spiritual terrain
A blend of science and social conscience
A genial sage of congenial visage

We salute Thee! O Saint Superior!
We thank you for the gift of nectar
Aloft the banner we pledge to hold
Of Ananda Tirtha`s voice of wisdom!
